

THERE'S A LITTLE GOLD STAR IN THE SERVICE FLAG

By
HAROLD B. FREEMAN
AND
JOE CRONSON

HAROLD FREEMAN MUSIC CO.
42 WEYBOSSET STREET
PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

Copyright

There's a little Gold Star in the Service Flag

Words by JOE CRONSON

Music by
HAROLD B. FREEMAN

INTRO (Slowly)

VOICE (Slowly)

Seems yes - ter - day he left us, They called him o - ver there — We When all the fight - ing's o - ver, And Peace is here a - gain — One hung a Ser - vice Flag to show He tried to do his share — Then can't re - gret their sac - ri - fice that right, not might should reign — When one day came a let - ter, It said he'd brave - ly died — He'd sol - dier boys turn home - ward, One can't help bear in mind — Some done his best, and gone to rest, A - cross the great di - vide. — There's a moth - er's boy, her pride and joy, They had to leave be - hind. —

Copyright MCMXXIII by Harold Freeman Music Co.
Providence, R. I.

B. Feldman & Co., London.

International Copyright Secured.

CHORUS (Slowly)

lit - tle Gold Star in the Ser - vice Flag, for a sol - dier who fought, and fell

'Twas blue as the sky, when we kissed him good - bye, And he an - swered his last fare - well And per - haps la - ter on, in the place he's gone We'll be proud of his deeds un - told When the lit - tle Blue Star in the Ser - vice

Flag was changed from Blue to Gold. There's a Gold

There's a little Gold Star in the Service Flag.

THE TRAIL TO HOME SWEET HOME

by HAROLD B. FREEMAN

A brand new song by the writer of "MY MOTHER'S LULLABY," "TAKE ME BACK TO YOUR GARDEN OF ROSES," "A LETTER FROM NO MAN'S LAND," "A DADDY'S PRAYER," etc., and bound to be his greatest success. Read the words of the Chorus:—

THE TRAIL TO HOME SWEET HOME

CHORUS

There's an olden trail, there's a golden trail,
Where the birds sing sweet and low;
It will take you back to Mother,
And the long ago.
There's a rainbow, too, shining just for you,
It will guide you as you roam;
With the stars above watching down with love,
On the trail that leads to Home Sweet Home.

Now try this little excerpt of the music:—

CHORUS

There's an old - en Trail, There's a Gold - en Trail, Where the birds sing sweet and low, It will take you back to moth - er and the long a - go; — There's a rain - bow, too, shin - ing

Copyright 1918 by Harold Freeman Music Co.

Complete copies may be obtained at any WOOLWORTH, KRESGE, KRESS, McCROY, or GRANT STORE or will be sent postpaid by the publisher on receipt of 25 cents in postage stamps.

Published and Copyrighted by
HAROLD FREEMAN MUSIC CO.
BOX 387, PROVIDENCE, R. I.